The Bankrupt Act.

We have been requested to publish the Bankrupt Law. This is impossible. It makes a respectable volume. In order, however, that our lookers may understand it, and may the rebuke not be liable to be imposed upon by parties, who are indifferent to the interests of others, we have taken the pains to compile from several sources the following general principles of the Act, for the benefit of all who contemplate seeking its benefits. But first of all, we advise our friends not to determine hastily what they will do, until they have had the counsel of a respectable and intelligent Attorney, upon whom they can rely.

1. The manifest design of the Bankrupt Law is to benefit honest, but unfortunate, debtors, whose just liabilities are greater than they can pay.

2. To become a voluntary bankrupt under this Act, the debtor must owe at least $300, which, of course, he is not able to pay in full.

3. Petitioners under the Bankrupt Act are required to render a schedule of all their debts and liabilities, of every kind and description, whatever, and also an inventory of all their estate, both real and personal, including all property and effects of which they are possessed, or in which they may have an interest, (though not in possession) in conformity with certain "Forms" prescribed in the "General Orders" of the Supreme Court of the United States. These schedules, verified by the oath of the petitioner before a District Court Judge, Register in Bankruptcy, or U S Commissioner, must accompany the petition and, when filed is the commencement of proceedings in Bankruptcy. If it should be found out, pending the proceedings at any time before the bankrupt is discharged, that he has, by any shift or subterfuge, made a false or partial schedule, this would be evidence of fraud and would defeat his discharge.

4. When the petitioner is by a firm or copartnership, a full set of schedules of the respective estates of the members of the firm should also be added.

5. When the petition is filed, the case is immediately referred to a Register, who examines the petition and schedules annexed thereto, and if they are correct in form, makes a certificate to that effect, to be filed with the Clerk, then adjudges the debtor a Bankrupt and issues a warrant to the messenger to summon all the creditors named in the petitioner's schedules to meet at the Register's office, at a certain time and place, to prove their claims and elect one or more Assignees to take charge of the Bankrupt's estate.

6. A creditor can, however, prove his claim at any time previous to the last dividend, which will generally be six months subsequent to the adjudication of Bankruptcy.

7. No creditor has any standing in a Bankrupt Court until he proves his claim.

8. Creditors have no right to compel the Bankrupt to answer questions concerning the disposal of property by him acquired subsequent to filing a petition in Bankruptcy. In other words, the date of the filing of the petition by or against a debtor, is the date at which, if adjudication of bankruptcy follows, the old order of things passes away and a new leaf is turned over. On this point decisions have been various. The safe rule appears to be, that the applicant in Bankruptcy has a perfect right to claim whatever he has made after his application, by his personal exertions, but any profits he may have made, from investment or credit, may be liable to the claim of the receiver up to almost the period of his discharge.

9. The Bankrupt can apply to the Court at any time after the expiration of six months, and within one year from the adjudication, for the discharge in bankruptcy, and in case no assets come into the hands of the assignee, or no debts be proved against his estate, at any time after the expiration of sixty days.

10 As soon as an Assignee is elected or appointed, the Judge or Register will convey to him, by deed of assignment, all the bankrupt's property except what is exempted, viz: "Household and kitchen furniture and other necessaries not exceeding in value ($500) five hundred dollars; also his wearing apparel and that of his wife and children, and such other property not included in the foregoing as is exempt from levy and sale upon execution or other process by the laws of the State in which the bankrupt resides, to an amount not exceeding that allowed by State exemption laws in force in 1864 A safe Counselor suggests, under this head, that the common impression that persons may become bankrupts and yet be allowed to retain their houses and lands, or other property of considerable value, is a great mistake. Under the Act, no honest Bankrupt in this state can have allotted to him, free from the operation of the Act, exceeding $700, besides the wearing apparel of himself and family. Bankrupts in this State are not entitled to homesteads under this Act.

11 It is the duty of the assignee, within twenty days after the assignment to him is made, to give to the bankrupt such articles as are exempted, and file an inventory of the same with the value of each article so allotted, and creditors may make objections to the report of the Assignee at any time within twenty days after it is filed.

12. As to costs in bankruptcy proceedings, section 46 of the Bankrupt Act provides that the petitioner, before a warrant issues, shall deposit fifty dollars with the Register, or with the Clerk, to be delivered to the Register as a security for his fees. General order XXIX provides that the fees of the Register, Marshal and Clerk shall be prepaid or secured before they can be compelled to act. It is also provided by General order XXX that where the debtor has no means, and can prove the fact to the satisfaction of the Court, upon application, an order will be made requiring all the costs in the case to be paid out of the fifty dollars deposited with the Register. If, however, there are assets, but not enough to pay the Messenger after deducting the Bankrupt's exempted property, so that nothing comes into the hands of the Assignee, the fees will have to be paid by the Bankrupt; but if the Assignee receives assets, the fees of the Messenger will be paid by him before any dividend is made among creditors.

13 Some suppose that the Register is entitled to $20 fee. The fees of the Register, Messenger, Clerk, and costs of publication of notices in Bankruptcy, are fixed by law, and if they demand higher fees, they are liable, as in other cases of malfeasance in office. In ordinary cases of Bankruptcy, the fees may amount to $100. In some cases more, in some less—the costs depending on the amount of labor and litigation involved in each case.

14. Differences of opinion among Attorneys have existed in this State, as to the limit which the Act makes, as to the time to make application in bankruptcy. Some have supposed that no deb or will be permitted to apply for Bankruptcy after some early day in March, unless he is able to pay fifty per cent of his debts. We are assured that this is not the case. The law did not go into operation for the purposes for which it was enacted until June 1st, 1867. It gives twelve months from that time, to all honest debtors, whatever may be the extent of their indebtedness which they cannot pay, in which to present their applications. After the 1st of June next, every debtor must be able to pay fifty per cent of his indebtedness, in order to a successful application in bankruptcy, unless he first obtain the consent of a majority of his creditors.

The above is a fair specimen of the kind of ballot to be cast at the approaching election by the Conservatives.

ACTION! ACTION!! ACTION!!!

The election is but a week off. Think of that, ye white men of North Carolina,—think of the momentous issues at stake, involving the best interests of your State, of yourselves and of your wives and children,—reflect that the life of Constitutional, Anglo-Saxon liberty is at stake, and WORK, in the few days left you for exertion, as you never worked before!

It is now too late to discuss further the great principles involved. We have omitted no opportunity, for the last two months, of exposing, to the best of our ability, and with all the earnestness of which we are capable, the hideous deformities of the infamous Constitution insultingly proposed for your acceptance. We feel that we have done our duty in this respect, and, whatever the result, shall at least feel that we have discharged that duty.

The proposed Constitution is a magazine of ruin. Nothing that Congress, or any other power, can do, will or can be half so degrading and iniquitous as that atrocious instrument. Even were it otherwise, the man who would disgrace himself by voluntarily endorsing this thing, in order to prevent a prospective evil, is false to all the instincts of manhood and unworthy the name of a free citizen.

We appeal to you, fellow citizens, to occupy the brief interval before the election to the best advantage. Lose no moment of time. All the signs of the time are full of hope and encouragement. At no former period have there been such unmistakable indications of a great popular uprising.—Victory is within our grasp,—victory over the enemies of our State, of our race and of Republican government!

Four (not "five") little letters embrace now the sum and substance of your duty—W-O-R-K!

THE FREEDMEN.

A friend writes us that Josiah Turner, Jr., in his speeches, says that he relies upon the disfranchised men defeating the Constitution. He is like Vance and the steam engine—he can't vote; but he has four hundred men who can, and they will vote as he says, and nobody can prevent it. He will neither buy, intimidate nor coerce them.

He says every disfranchised man can carry, by persuasion, one freedman. He knew some men who would carry ten and even twenty.

The negro is ordinarily grateful. The man, who shelters and feeds him, will be able, by moral suasion, to control him.

WHICH IS BETTER, a system of State government, devised by Gaston, Macon, Daniel, Morehead, and other North Carolina patriots, or a system devised by New England adventurers, based upon Yankee notions and prejudices, adapted to New England wants, and adopted by scallawags and negroes?

A MILITARY COURT.

The following order of Gen. Canby appeared in the Standard, of yesterday, with the significant heading, "Provision for a Military Court—Our loyal people to be protected."

It is not our province to dictate to, or to criticise the acts of, the Military authorities, so long as they are in accordance with the laws of the land. Gen. Canby, by the Reconstruction Acts, is made responsible for the preservation of order in this Military District, and, of course, he is the proper judge of the necessity for any order which he may deem expedient.

Are the protection of the loyal people," we believe that the provisions already made by law are ample for the protection of every person in the District, disposed to be loyal or orderly in his deportment, or for the punishment of evil doers. But we are aware that the Military authorities have been plied with all kinds of infamous and malicious misrepresentations against our people, which can be made to appear palpably false before any just and proper tribunal. These misrepresentations have been so persistently pressed upon the Military authorities, that Gen. Canby, in order to guard the public order at every point, has been led to establish the Provost Court, we presume, provided for in the following order.

The people of this department will be much surprised at the selection which has been made of Provost Judge. Col. Dewees is the Register in Bankruptcy for this District, an office which is supposed to yield him large profit, if attended to, and which is of sufficient importance to occupy his whole time. Besides this, he is a candidate for Congress, and now, by Gen. Canby's appointment, he is to be the sole Judge of the Provost Court, at a salary of $100 per month. He has given no proof of legal knowledge or ability, and, unfortunately, he has impressed this entire community with his uniform partizan bitterness and rancor, which illy befit the office to which he has been appointed. We sincerely hope that he will disappoint the public, and that he will not only show some qualification for his new position, which the public do not yet accord to him, but especially that his temper and acts will be such as to carry with them a conviction of his impartiality, justice and integrity to the minds of the people of all classes.

The Standard especially lays stress upon the protection which will be afforded, by this Court, to "the loyal people in their right of suffrage." We are sure that no intelligent Conservative man will lay himself liable to censure or arrest upon this score. Conservatism obliges every man to allow the exercise of this right, as matters stand, and none of them will attempt to control the vote of any man against his will. But it is palpable that the restraints imposed upon the members of the Loyal Leagues, and the bitterness and threats employed by Radical negroes against colored persons, disposed to vote the Conservative ticket, have become so common as to interfere most seriously with the proper exercise of the right of suffrage. The oath imposed by the Loyal Leagues violates or restrains the freedom of thought and action of the ignorant persons who have been drawn into them, and this should be one of the FIRST POINTS of investigation devolving upon this new Provost Judge!

HEADQUARTERS SECOND MIL. DIS., }
Charleston, S. C., April 8, 1868. }
SPECIAL ORDERS, }
No. 83. }

[Extract.]

1. A Provost Court is hereby constituted at Raleigh, North Carolina, for the Counties of Warren, Franklin, Wake, Johnston, Harnett, Cumberland, Robeson, Richmond, Moore, Chatham, Orange, Granville, Caswell, Alamance, Person, Rockingham, Guilford, Randolph, Montgomery, Anson, Union, Stanly, Cabarrus, Mecklenburg, Iredell, Rowan, Davie, Davidson, Surry, Stokes, Forsythe and Yadkin, with jurisdiction, as restricted by paragraph II, of General Orders, No. 18, current series, from these Headquarters, of all civil cases arising within the limits of that Post, in which the amount in controversy does not exceed three hundred (300) dollars; and of all offenses, not under the Articles of War, which may be referred to it by the Post Commander, except murder, manslaughter, assault with intent to kill, violation of the laws against duelling, perjury, rape and arson. Sentences and judgments will not be executed until approved by the Commanding General.

The court will ordinarily sit and be always open at Raleigh, North Carolina; but will, when needful, repair to and temporarily sit at other points within said Counties, as the interests of justice may require.

The procedure of the court will be assimilated to that of magistrates under the laws of the State, and will conform to the regulations prescribed for like courts in General Orders.

The proceedings of the court will be forwarded through the Post Commander for review and final decision.

John T. Deweese, Esq., is hereby appointed sole Judge of said court, and his compensation as such fixed at one hundred (100) dollars per month.

The court may employ a clerk at a compensation not exceeding three (3) dollars a day, who shall keep the records of its proceedings. The fund accruing from fines and costs will be appropriated to defray the expenses of the court.

Simple rules and forms of procedure, and the fees and charges prescribed by the court, will be published by the court for general information.

The Sheriffs of the said counties of Warren, Franklin, Wake, Johnston, Harnett, Cumberland, Robeson, Richmond, Moore, Chatham, Orange, Granville, Caswell, Alamance, Person, Rockingham, Guilford, Randolph, Montgomery, Anson, Union, Stanly, Cabarrus, Mecklenburg, Iredell, Rowan, Davie, Davidson, Surry, Stokes, Forsythe and Yadkin, their deputies and all constables therein, are required to execute the orders and decrees of the court.

At the end of each month, a return of the cases tried, and of all receipts and expenditures, with vouchers, will be made by the court to the Post Commander, and by him forwarded to these Headquarters.

By Command of Bvt. Maj. Gen. Ed. R. S. CANBY:

LOUIS V. CAZIARC,
Aide-de-Camp, A. A. A. G.

SHALL NEGRO GUARDIANS BE APPOINTED FOR WHITE WARDS? That is one of the issues. The so-called Convention voted down a prohibition of this possible outrage!

WE HAVE CHANCED TO SEE the speech of John Pool, at Edenton, which the Radical organ pronounces "an able and eloquent speech"—"the speech of a statesman and patriot." "What a contrast," says that candid print, "between its clear and calm statements, its philosophic tone, its unanswerable logic, and the violent and inflammatory ravings of the rebel orators!"—Why did it not come out with the truth and say something of the violent and inflammatory ravings of the Radical orators? Why not contrast that speech with its own violent and inflammatory ravings? We happen to know that Mr. Pool has been perplexed, and had many misgivings, as to what course he ought to pursue. He had many and grave objections to the mongrel Constitution, as well as to the character and competency of the men on the Radical ticket, who have to be taken with the Constitution." He stood shivering on the brink of the muddy pool, hesitating and praying to be enlightened as to his duty. But policy and the prospective Senatorship soon brought him up to the mark; and with a shudder he—made the plunge! It might have been expected. The temptation was great, and we know

"When as of the wavering balance shakes
It's rarely right adjusted."

Mr. Pool is a specious, as oily, man of the world. If we should add, that he is selfish, insincere, and Jesuitical, we should only say, what the public very well knows. This speech is a plausible effort, carefully rounded off in flowing periods for publication, of a mild tone enough, but absolutely full of disreputable dodgings, which we have neither the time nor temper to trace out and expose. We only notice it now, to ask why, if the X. P. G. so heartily approves its clear and calm statements, its philosophic tone, &c., he cannot, in his speeches, and in the columns of his paper, also, afford to imitate Mr. Pool's alleged example? Anything from him, in a calm, philosophical, decent tone, would be so unexpected, so surprising, and so really refreshing.

Mr. Pool "regrets some of the features of the Reconstruction Acts," and admits that "there is much in the Constitution that he would have otherwise." It would have been edifying if Mr. Pool had been willing to state, with some particularity, what portions of the Reconstruction Acts, and to have specified a little of the much, which he finds, in the Constitution, to which he feels a repugnance. Some of the more gifted brethren, and peradventure some of the colored 'spounders, might have removed his very natural scruples. Discussion might have ensued, leading to happy and conscience-easing results.

But did the individual, who heads the Radical ticket, and who so admires and commends the "clear and calm statements, and the philosophic tone" of this speech, himself ever admit, in speech or print, that there is any thing to regret in the Reconstruction Acts, or that there is or possibly could be any thing wrong in this Constitution? Have either his bearers or his readers ever learned directly from him, that both were not absolutely perfect in all their parts? Has not the Constitution been especially bespattered with praise, as "the perfection of reason" as lovingly as my Lord Coke belauded the law? Are not the interesting neophytes ordered, and the other Leaguers urged, to spread open their mouths and swallow at once the whole bale of Dorter's pills—yea and his bills too,—all stirred up together, without gulping, or grossing, or wry faces even? Reconstruction acts, Constitution, W. W. HOLDEN, (Heaven help us all!) Dave Jenkins, (Mercy on us!) Tourgee (the nasty,) Sam Watts (the greasy,) and, lastly and lestly, those two beautiful Yankee specimens, Deweese and Tim Lee? And are these not coaxingly assured that there is nothing obnoxious in the villainous compound that, in truth, when the diaphragm is once fully stretched, it is very palatable and pleasant to take? Mercy on the white men who are so stupid and forsaken as to swallow the filthy "mess!"

JO TURNER MAKES POOL TAKE WATER?—A RICH SCENE!!

HILLSBORO, April 13, 1868.

Messrs. Editors.—The great Mr. Pool, assisted by Messrs. Coleman & Co., are here to-day.

While Mr. Pool was speaking, Hon. Josiah Turner walked upon the stand, shook hands with Mr. Pool and asked if he might be allowed to reply—stating that, in political discussions, reply was as necessary as singing was in preaching. Mr. Pool said he wished Mr. Turner had called on him yesterday and asked to reply. The discussion could have commenced at 10 o'clock this morning, instead of 12 o'clock, and there would have been ample time to hear both sides. Now he had to leave at 4 o'clock, (the train does not reach here until 5 o'clock,) this evening, to reach Graham to speak to-morrow. Mr. Turner said if he would remain to-night, he would give him a good cup of coffee, and, if he liked it, a drink before breakfast, and send him on a hand car to Graham, to-morrow, by 9 or 10 o'clock, in ample time for his appointment, provided he would allow Mr. Turner to reply to him at Graham. MR. POOL DECLINED TO ALLOW MR. TURNER ON THE PRESENT OCCASION OR AT GRAHAM, to-morrow, to reply.

Mr. Turner left the stage, declaring he knew no reason why Mr. Pool should decline a discussion, unless he (Pool) feared that Mr. Turner would inform his colored brethren, that Mr. Pool had one of their color in the Hillsboro' jail for sale and did sell him, after Lincoln, by his proclamation, had emancipated all slaves!

Mr. Turner, and the few whites who had accompanied him, then retired and left it all with Pool and the negroes. What followed we are not able to say. No doubt Coleman, who is now said to be sued by the husband of a negro woman, for a nameless outrage, followed. Mr. Pool recommended the negroes to vote for two of the Radical ticket, who murdered negroes, and Rodman, who ordered loyal men to be shot for no other crime than that they would not fight again the Union and the FLAG!

ORANGE.

WHICH IS BETTER, a Government administered by intelligent and virtuous native WHITE MEN, or a Government administered by needy squatters, ignorant Africans and impudent allies of mixed blood?

RADICAL POW-WOW IN GRANVILLE—LASSITER, CUFFEE MAYO AND CANTWELL—PISTOLS AND OTHER SMALL ARMS.

OXFORD, N. C. April 13th, 1868.

Messrs. Editors.—According to advertisement the party of morals had a Mass Meeting here on Saturday.

Early on the ground appeared Ragland, the forger, looking meaner than usual; for he had just received a new thrashing at the hands of his son-in-law, as a black patch over one eye and sundry bruises plainly showed, which is said to be a stern reality that other parts of his person give marked evidence of his severe castigation. Owing to his dilapidated condition he did not appear as an "orator," but R. W. Lassiter, Edward Cantwell, Cuffee Mayo and other colored gentlemen addressed the meeting.

Of Lassiter, your readers know too much already. If the people of the State think of him as we Granville folks do, he will hardly join the High Court of Impeachment at Washington, in time to vote for the conviction of President Johnson, "or any other man."

Cuffee Mayo,—the author of the remarkable declaration, "I am a republikin, a true republikin and I intend to emigrate my principles,"—emigrated at considerable length; but not one word did he "emigrate" in regard to the stolen pistol. But he had hardly quit "emigrating," before the Committee on nominations announced that the name of Cuffee Mayo was erased from the list of nominees, (heretofore made,) and Capt. Smith was nominated in his place; because Cuffee had stolen a pistol! Thereupon Cuffee "expatiated," and the sympathies of the meeting being with the pistol dealer, he was unanimously re-nominated. It was suggested that Capt. Smith should have stolen a gun and thereby secured his nomination in spite of Cuffee's side-arms; but the Capt. declined so doing, as he would have done the nomination, had it been tendered him.

After the small arms came the big gun—the ex-Colonel of Confederate Cavalry. Some colored brother cried out "make way for the new convert!" and Cantwell, the would-be Clerk of the House of Representatives, "so-called," appeared. Not having had an audience for lo! these many days, the Col. let off lots of gas, you may depend. At such length did he expatiate, that night was nigh at hand when he ceased, and he left little time for any one else to speak. Some one suggests that he can do little harm, as he is disfranchised and can certainly not influence any one else.

Next came James J. Moore, late of the Convention "so-called." He had the effrontery to open a hot fire on the "secessionists," almost before the earliest secessionist, that North Carolina can boast, had ceased his "boil" remarks. After an attempted anecdote about "a mad dog that had the hydrophobia," (probably alluding to Cantwell again,) Moore had sense enough left to sit down.

Several others spoke, and of course used threats and lies, but I do not wish to trouble your readers further with their dirty doings and misdoings. Not more than a dozen white men were present, and most of them were candidates. SCRIB.

GOOD NEWS FROM CALDWELL—THE LEAGUES DISBANDING, &c.

LENOIR, CALDWELL COUNTY, N. C., }
April 11th, 1868. }

MESSRS. EDITORS:—We have had a lively time here this week. It is Court week—Judge Little presiding.

On Monday, the Hon. Mr. Ashe addressed a very large audience, in opposition to the proposed mongrel Constitution. His argument was very clear and convincing, carrying conviction to almost every one that heard it. It has had the happiest effect. Numbers are leaving the League every day. One, numbering thirty, has disbanded, burning their books and renouncing the whole concern.

On Tuesday, the Conservatives nominated their county ticket. It embraces the best men of the county—men who have been tried and trusted heretofore. They publicly accepted their nominations and will work against the proposed Constitution.

On Wednesday, Tod R. Caldwell, and General Abbott, who came all the way from New Hampshire, as he says, "not with a carpet-bag, but with a Brigade," addressed the faithful, but they could not reclaim the back-sliders. The General's flat voice and dull statistics fell like a wet blanket on Tod's firery appeals to the darkies and bush-whackers.

The Conservatives proposed to divide time with them and have an old fashioned discussion. But the proposition was rejected, and on Wednesday, Col. B. S. Gaither, in a powerful speech of two hours, completely demolished their demagogueism.

There is intense interest among the people of this mountain district in regard to the proposed Constitution, and the whites of this county go against it almost unanimously.

If the other white counties will give the same majority that this county will give, the Radical concern will be voted down by thirty thousand majority, at least.

Yours, L.

GREAT ENTHUSIASM.

A gentleman has just informed us that the enthusiasm among the people at every place where Gov. Vance and Maj. Erwin have spoken in Mitchell, Yancey and Madison, has never been equalled. The most staunch and influential Leaguers are leaving the dark-lantern concern, and bringing with them hundreds of honest white men, who have just found out where the Radical party is leading the country to. On the road, at the villages, and wherever our speakers are heard, the people seem suddenly to awake from their apathy, and are now joining the grand army of independent Americans, to defeat the Mongrel Constitution.

Capt. John C. Kilpatrick, the leading man in the Radical party in Yancey, has renounced his allegiance to that party, and, by his influence, brought to the Conservative ranks hundreds of honest converts.

RADICALISM IS DEAD IN WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA.

DO YOUR DUTY, MEN OF THE EAST, AND NORTH CAROLINA WILL STILL HAVE A WHITE MAN'S GOVERNMENT.—Asheville News.

A DINNER DAY.

In traveling through Mitchell county, one day, last week, Vance commenced eating dinner at nine o'clock in the morning, and could not stop until five o'clock in the evening. At almost every house on the road, he found a hearty and cordial greeting, with a sumptuous repast set out for him, of which he was compelled to partake. And yet the Radical Editor tells us Z. B. Vance has no influence in these Western counties! Why, there is not a true hearted man in these mountains that would not share his last crust with him.—Asheville News.

SHALL WHITE MEN BE ENROLLED in the MILITIA with NEGROES,—perhaps under negro officers? That is one of the issues.

In the Town of Danville, Virginia.

ON Wednesday, 21st of May next, will be sold at public auction, without reserve, that valuable property, known as the Danville New Hotel, an elegant new five story brick building, on Main street, lot 70½ x 187½ feet, built with all the modern improvements for a first class Hotel, and containing 87 rooms, in addition to large Parlors, Dining Hall, &c. The location is one of the best in Virginia for a Hotel. The house, opened and well kept, would secure, at once, from seventy-five to one hundred good boarders. A great bargain may be had, as it will be certainly sold.

TERMS: One third cash; balance six and twelve months, with interest, satisfactorily secured. Will be sold at the same time and place, the Store House and lot adjoining, a valuable property. For further information address

A Card of Explanation—the North Carolinian.

In consequence of the silent, but none the less severe, rebuke administered to them by the public, on attempting a revival of the North Carolinian, those upon whom the pecuniary responsibility of such step mainly rested, have determined to abandon the enterprise, and in the present crippled and poverty stricken condition of the people, give up the idea of establishing in Raleigh a free, fearless and independent press of the character designed for this paper.

This course is advised as much in deference to the needy and impoverished condition of the undersigned, as to the pecuniary interest and protection of those furnishing the means upon which to re-establish the paper; and, therefore, concurring with the gentlemen, who have so kindly proffered to aid him, that, under the present circumstances, to go on would involve a useless and reckless sacrifice of money, and deeply sensible of the fact that those among whom he came unbidden, have seen nothing in his course to elicit their applause and support, he deems it the part of good breeding to retire with the best grace an unwelcome guest can assume.

A writer seldom acquits himself with credit when denied the appreciation of those in whose interest he labors nor can a journal be expected to live long in a community where those who secretly approve its course are afraid to be seen reading it, and where luminous men shrink from the consequences of having their names and houses appear in its advertising columns.

Satisfied that in this campaign "the work is done and well done," the North Carolinian discontinues at Raleigh, and the undersigned leaves with the proud satisfaction of having done, or at least endeavored to do, his duty.

In the recent attempt to revive the North Carolinian in this city, the undersigned was not trifling with the public. He merely obeyed, at a personal sacrifice, the universally expressed wish of the people, the worth and sincerity of which having been tested, he cannot permit a further pecuniary sacrifice on the part of his friends. As announced on a former occasion like this, the balances due each and every one of the patrons of the paper will be speedily and equitably adjusted.

Renewing his thanks to those who have stood by him, and asking at the hands of his brethren of the state "quid," one publication of this card, the undersigned assures his friends, and brethren of the press, that it shall not be long before he is heard from again.

THE RANK AND FILE OF THE ARMY.

A brief paragraph, in the Sentinel of Monday, alluded to a recent meeting of the soldiers at Carlisle, Pa., and the subsequent action of Gen. Grant, ordering the Commandant of the Post to a distant point and providing for the early transfer of the soldiers engaged in the meeting to other commands.

The resolutions adopted by the meeting are such as we might expect from true patriots, alive to the interests of their country, and from men who estimate properly the obligations of their solemn oaths. The resolutions deserve to be put on record, and we therefore transfer them to our columns. They have produced quite a howl among the Radical presses, and a fierce denunciation, which these brave man do not deserve. The columns of the Radical press are burdened with encomiums upon Gen. Grant, Gen. Sickles, and other officers of the army, who, by word and deed, have allied themselves actively with the Radical party; no officer is rebuked for his partyism, if he happens to be a Radical; but, should the rank and file dare to express their sentiments, legitimately and patriotically, as the soldiers at Carlisle have done in the following resolutions, which have not a scintilla of partisanship in them, the whole kennel of Radical curs are out upon them.

We do not approve of the participation or interference of the officers and soldiers of the army in partizan politics. It is not their province, according to the army regulations, to enter into partizan discussion and to commit themselves actively to the interests of any party, but we defy the severest criticism to point out in the following resolutions any thing of the kind. Read them:

"WHEREAS, The present great crisis in the affairs of our Government seems to demand the attention and earnest consideration of all good citizens, and, for obvious reasons, especially of the citizen soldiers of the Republic, and in order by our unanimity ever to indicate to the world something of the sentiments of the rank and file of the army; be it

Resolved, That the first duty of an American soldier is to support the Constitution of the United States against all enemies and opposers whomsoever.

Resolved, That we recognize in its fullest signification the fact that the constitutionally elected President of the United States is the Commander-in-Chief of the Army and Navy, and the person to whom our first and paramount allegiance is due.

Resolved, That, in his Excellency, Andrew Johnson, our beloved Commander-in-Chief, we have a consistent, tried and honest statesman, in whose patriotism and wisdom we repose unbounded confidence, and to whom we hereby pledge our devoted support in his efforts to maintain the Constitution of his country and the liberties of the people."

VANCE AND ERWIN AT ASHEVILLE.

EXTRACT from a letter, dated

ASHEVILLE, April 10.

"We had a high day yesterday. 1,000 or 1,500 people being present, the largest assembly collected for many years. Vance and Erwin spoke. All were pleased and good was done. They have gone to Hendersonville to a barbecue. There will be a crowd there to-day.

Rutherford is turning things over in a hurry. The people in the mountains everywhere, indeed, are moving in the right way. Scores of whites and some blacks are leaving the Leagues. The Rads look downcast, mean and sheepish. Vance skinned them yesterday, and Erwin gave Henry and Lusk fits. Poor fellows! they'll not soon forget Mark."

LINCOLN!

EXTRACT from a letter dated

LINCOLNTON, April 11, 1868.

"The White Man's ticket will be all right in Lincoln. D. A. Jenkins and O'Hara, a yellow nigger from Goldsboro', spoke here on Tuesday. William A. Graham, Jr., and Col. J. F. Hoke replied to Dave, and wore him out. We will give Holden his final quarters "this pop." We have never had greater excitement here than now."

OLD CLEVELAND!

EXTRACT from a letter dated

SHELBY, April 8.

"Cleveland will give 1,000 majority against the Constitution, if not more. We are all active up here and at work."

THE ASHEVILLE News says that Yancey is just making the Radical fur fly. It's a white man's county, sure, and even the negroes are taking the stump, urging their own race to vote down the Constitution.

HON. J. H. WILSON, of Charlotte, made a powerful speech at Union Court, last week. It is represented to have had a great effect.

ALEXANDER AND WILKES.—Hon. Thos. S. Ashe and Henry K. Nash, Esq., addressed the people at Taylorsville (Court Week) last Wednesday, with fine effect. Also, the people at Wilkesboro, on Thursday. We have the most favorable reports, says the Statesville American, from these counties, of great changes in public sentiment. Western white men have no use for a Constitution that will tax them to death, and put their families under negro rule.

POOL AT HILLSBORO'.—The X. P. G., in his paper, wonders if Gov. Graham "had the courage to meet Mr. Pool in his own county." Gov. Graham was probably on his way to Rutherford, where he speaks today, but the Hon. Josiah Turner was at home, and dared Mr. Pool to divide time with him, and the aforesaid Mr. Pool most ingloriously BACKED DOWN! See the letter of our Hillsboro' correspondent.

OUR CORRESPONDENCE.—We could not, we are sure, more acceptably fill our columns, than we do, this morning, with our interesting correspondence from various portions of the State. We take this occasion to thank our friends for their numerous favors in this line during the campaign.—And we ask of them, now, the additional favor, that they will, at the earliest possible moment, after the election, transmit us the returns.

SKIES BRIGHT, FRIENDS! Up and at the Mongrels!!

HON. WILLIAM A. GRAHAM.

Gov. Graham addressed large audiences last week, at Statesville, Salisbury, High Point, Greensboro and Snow Camp, in Alamance. He will speak at Rutherfordton to-day and at Shelby to-morrow. He has produced a powerful impression wherever he has gone. There is no man in whom our people have so much confidence.

THE TIMES made us say, on yesterday, in speaking of Mr. Rodman, directly the reverse of what we designed. Instead of "We do recognize the right of any Radical candidate to our columns, except", &c., the paragraph should have read "We do not recognize," &c. We will attend to Mr. R. as soon as possible.

THAT GALLANT gentleman, Maj A. C. Avery, is the Conservative nominee for the "House of Representatives" (so-called) in Burke. Little Ted backed down from a discussion with him a few days since.

THE OFFICE of the Southern Express Company, at Morganton, N. C., was robbed of one or two thousand dollars, on Monday night, the 6th. inst. The iron safe was broken open and the money abstracted.

VANCE is spreading the "fire in the Mountains." Everywhere he is received with the wildest enthusiasm. The people flock to hear him by thousands.

THE WORK GOES BRAVELY ON.—From every quarter the indications are most cheering. We shall defeat the infamous Constitution, with anything like a fair vote.

LOOK OUT for fraudulent tickets from the "boxed up" concerns!

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

HON. JOSIAH TURNER IN MOORE.

CARTER'S MILL,

Moore County, April, 1868.

MESSRS. EDITORS.—Josiah Turner, jr., spoke to our League men to-day. There was a good turn out, as it was too wet to plough. Nine out of ten of his hearers were League men and old Union men.

Mr. Turner said there was too much disloyalty on the Radical Ticket for Union men. Three of the Radical candidates signed the ordinance of secession. Two of them murdered negroes, and a third one murdered Union men by the wholesale. One of their nominees had been court martialed and dismissed from the Confederate service for embezzling money belonging to soldiers. Another of their candidates hunted deserters with dogs. Mr. Turner said that he had proposed to put the dogs and deserters after this same Radical candidate during the war; he was now sorry that he did not make the dogs eat him up.

He said it grieved him to find his well-raised, decent old Union friends following Holden, Bob Dick, Tom Settle and Rodman, and 70,000 negroes. This Holden, Rodman, screah men, had his old Union friends behind the negroes even.

There was office and place in store for Rufus and Victor Barringer, Robert Lassiter and John Pool, if the Radicals succeeded; but there was nothing but disgrace to his old Union friends, who were following the Holden screah, who had dragged them into the late war.

I forgot to mention, in its proper place, that Judge Tourgee was put through as the man who had been carried by a negro—and failed to appear at Court, according to his bond, in discharge of his bail, who had kept him out of jail.

The speech told on the old Union men in the League, and they quit in great numbers, as the result of the election will show.

Our friends here are all alive to the importance of the election.

Yours, MOORE.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

MATTERS AND THINGS IN RANDOLPH.

FRANKLINSVILLE, N. C., April 10th.

Messrs. Editors:—Day before yesterday was the day for the Radical Republican candidates of Randolph to expound the Constitution and enlighten the people of this place, generally, on the all absorbing topics afloat. Although I did not expect to derive much information, I went to hear them explode, and purpose giving you a synopsis of a few of the speeches delivered on the occasion.

Mr. H. F. Trogden, of "Convenshunal" notoriety, a deep-dyed Rad, launched forth in a tirade of abuse against the Conservative party, and accused them of lying and misrepresentation to effect the defeat of the Constitution. He then touched lightly on its most important provisions, and said "that although it had some small objections, yet, in the main, it was highly acceptable, and ought to be received in good faith by all true Union men." Addressing the negroes, he inadvertently called them black men, whereupon, he was greatly discomfited, and blunderingly substituted "colored"—remarking, by way of excuse, "that the race was often designated black, although some of them were as white as himself."

His opponent for the office of Sheriff, Mr. Rush, was next in turn. Mr. R. is a true Conservative and a thorough Union man.—He commenced by repiying sharply to some personal allusions from Trogden, and then pitched into Holden. The latter he showed up in his true colors, and denounced as a low political trickster and demagogue. Rodman fared the same at his hands, and the names of Lamb and Hicks were sounded in the ears and flung in the teeth of his (Rodman's) supporters, as martyrs to his (Rodman's) zeal for the cause. What a noble example of Union consistency is Rodman! Mr. Rush then took up the "per diem" subject, and such a raking as he gave our worthy delegate and would-be Sheriff, on that score, has not fallen to his lot, I presume, since the night of the closing scenes, &c. The good men of Randolph will reward Mr. Rush's faithful services and efforts in behalf of Constitutional liberty at the ballot box and consign Trogden to the shades of woful defeat! Mark our prediction!

Mr. E. T. Blair, of secession cockade notoriety, but who has since repented and had his sins washed away by the baptism of the "Union League," then spoke in a senseless and disgusting strain for the space of half an hour. He said "he thought he had phased his constituents as a "legislature," and was anxious again to serve their interests, and the good of "North Carlina," in the same capacity. He was opposed to the old State Constitution now said it was based on the old English law, which was "semi-barbarous," anyhow, from root to branch! The old law of England, upon which is founded the Constitution of the Republic, and which is the basis and origin of all law, a semi barbarous one!

Mr. B. then made the startling announcement, "that the cost of running the State machinery would be less than half the expense of the old State Government," and wound up his eloquent harangue by saying that he had voted for every Reconstruction measure, and, if this failed, he would vote for the next, if it disfranchised half the men and confiscated two thirds of the property! Good Heavens! Shall such arrogance, audacity and ignorance guide the helm of our good old "ship of State," surrounded as she is, on all sides, by rocks and breakers? No more can she ride the storms of political distraction which are howling about her, and steer safely into port, with such men as Blair, Ashesworth, Trogden, &c., as pilots, than the "Great Eastern" can climb the Rocky Mountains; and no more can peace and harmony and prosperity follow in the track prescribed by the new Constitution, than darkness pursue the sun in his daily course through the heavens.

Freemen of North Carolina! arouse!—The issue is before you. Let every white man entitled to vote go to the polls and vote against the Constitution and all its supporters!

Very Truly,

A CONSERVATIVE.

SOUTHERN MURDERS—WHO COMMIT THEM?

Whenever any radical firebrand, loyal leaguer or negro is killed or hurt in the South, the radical press and orators of the North make a terrible noise about it. They ring the changes and howl day after day about rebel outrages, rebel hatred and rebel murderers, but we never heard anything from them concerning the murdered Southern whites and black outrages. The radical papers are full of sensation accounts and denunciations of the murder of Ashburn, in Georgia, but they say nothing about the white one armed ex Confederate soldier who was shot dead on his horse recently near Selma, Alabama, or of the other four white men who have been murdered in the same vicinity since the war and no one arrested for these murders. No, we hear nothing from these radicals of the numerous other murders of the conquered Southern whites and outrages on them in other localities of the South, because there is every reason to believe this is the work of the black loyal leaguers. At a public procession and meeting of negroes at Macon, Georgia, on March 30, the "loyal blacks" carried a banner on which the figure of a negro, cut in pasteboard, hung dangling from a gallows, and to which was attached on a piece of white paper, the following inscription: "Every man that don't vote a radical ticket, this is the way we want to do him—hang him by the neck." These radical loyal league negroes boldly proclaimed, too, that the negro who failed to register should receive thirty-nine lashes; if he failed to vote at the election, two hundred lashes, and if he voted the democratic ticket he should be hanged. Need we be surprised, then, that white Southerners are murdered in every part of the South and that the murderers are not arrested? The Northern friends of these black barbarians pretend not to know anything about their murderous doings. It is clear that the South under radical rule is fast tending to anarchy and to a worse condition than St. Domingo was ever in.—N. Y. Herald.

RADICALISM IN NORTH CAROLINA.

The Radicals are at loggerheads in North Carolina. Their candidate for Governor is W. W. Holden, who was one of the most bitter rebels, until since the close of the war, when he concluded to walk in to the Radical camp, attracted, no doubt, by the scent of plunder. As the worst kind of rebels are "truly loyal," as soon as they join the Radical party, Holden has succeeded in securing the nomination for Governor. Some of the original Radicals in that State are dissatisfied, however, and are showing up their candidate in a very bad light. A paper called the "Holden Record" is before us, and in it we notice some very damaging charges against Mr. Holden. Quotations from a paper edited by him prior to and during the rebellion make it apparent that he was one of the most intensified rebels.

Here is a quotation from his paper of June 5th, 1861: "Who will plot for the heads of Abe Lincoln and General Scott?" This is the kind of man that the Kennebec "Journal" and other Radical papers want to see placed in authority in North Carolina. Would it not be as well for them to stop charging Democrats with seeking to elect rebels to office? What would they say if the Democratic candidate had been guilty of uttering such sentiments? The man who wanted to plot for the heads of Lincoln and Scott is good enough for a Governor, now, inasmuch as he is ready to aid the Radical party. That is all the "loyalty" that they now require, while constantly slandering Democrats for fraternizing with rebels.—Bangor (Maine) Standard.

In consequence of Judge Chase's illness, the Court adjourned to 12 o'clock, to-morrow, with but two dissenting voices.

After adjournment of the Court, the Senate continued its session.

The House returned to the Chamber, but there was no quorum present.

The adjournment will add zest to the Sergeant Bates' ceremonies. He unfurls his flag from the dome of the Capitol at 2 o'clock.

Our Midnight Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 14, P. M.

Sergeant Bates crossed Long Bridge at 10 o'clock.

Mr. Eldridge, Representative from Wisconsin, welcomed Bates to a speech.

The weather was unfavorable, but the crowd was very large.

Bates wore the jacket and pants presented to him in South Carolina, and is presented to him in Montgomery, Ala. He carried a horse cap, presented to him by the ladies of Vicksburg, Miss., and his flag.

The President met him at the threshold of the Mansion, saying: "All I want to do is to welcome you and your flag."

Bates received an entertainment at the White House, and proceeded to the Metropolitan Hotel, where he is quartered, and then proceeded to the Capitol, where he failed to secure admittance!

After leaving the Capitol, Bates proceeded to the Washington monument.

E. O. Perrin, of Tennessee, spoke, and said that had Bates carried a negro on his shoulders, from Vicksburg, they would have allowed him to place THE NEGRO ON THE GOODESS OF LIBERTY!

It is understood that the Departments will be closed to-morrow, in honor of unveiling Lincoln's statue.

Gen. Sherman was before the Impeachment Managers to-day, who, having power to examine witnesses on oath, without restraint of Court rules, elicited all facts not yet known to the public.

The Capitol authorities are shifting the responsibility of denying access to Bates.

After the adjournment of the Court, the Senate occupied itself in discussing the printing of extra copies of the trial, until Executive Session, and then adjourned.

VIRGINIA CONVENTION, &c., &c.

RICHMOND, April 14 P. M.

An article was adopted, providing that any amendment to the Constitution shall first be adopted by the Legislature, and then referred to the succeeding Legislature, which may refer it to the people for ratification.

An article was adopted, declaring all citizens to possess equal civil and political rights and public privileges.

A report, redistricting the State for Congressmen, making one Congressman elective by the State at large, was adopted.

The Convention rescinded the resolution to adjourn to-day.

The Republican nominations are being made all over the State.

In Caroline county, a meeting nominated Hawkshurst for Governor, and one white and one negro member to the Legislature.

In Hanover county, William James was nominated for Congress, and one white and one negro member to the Legislature.

Gen. Schofield, to-day, appointed Wm. N. Berkely Mayor of Alexandria, and a full set of city officers and Councilmen for that city.

ORDER FROM GENERAL CANBY.

HEDQ'RS 2ND. MILITARY DISTRICT,
CHARLESTON, S. C., April 6, 1868.

GENERAL ORDERS }
No. 61. }

The Commanding General has received information from different sections of the States of North Carolina and South Carolina, and from members of both political parties, that combinations have been formed, or are now being formed, to prevent, delay or hinder the execution of the laws of the United States, or by force, intimidation or threat to prevent persons from accepting or executing the duties of any office or employment under the United States, at the elections to be held under the authority of the law of March 2 1867, "to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel states," and the laws that are supplementary thereto. While he is satisfied that these complaints apply to a few persons only of both parties, it is proper that all such persons should be warned that any attempt by force to prevent, hinder or delay the execution of the laws of the United States, under the authority of which the said election is ordered, or by force, intimidation or threat to prevent any person from accepting or holding any office, or trust, or place of confidence under the United States, as Registrar, Superintendent, Judge, Manager, Inspector or Clerk, or other employment at said election, will be amenable, not only to the penalties prescribed under the authority of the said laws, but for violation of the Act of Congress "to define and punish certain conspiracies," approved July 31, 1861. (Statutes at Large, Volume 12, Chapter XXXIII.)

It is the duty of the civil and military authorities in both States to secure to every registered voter the full and free exercise of his right of suffrage, and this duty must be fully, faithfully and impartially performed, and the Commanding General confidently expects that the people of these States will unite in securing for each other the full and proper exercise of this franchise. But if in any District or County, or polling subdivision of either State, the election should be prevented, or the ballot-boxes or poll-lists should be destroyed, or the electors duly registered under the laws of the United States should be prevented by force or intimidation from voting, a new election will be ordered for such District, county or polling subdivision.

To the end that the laws of the United States may be duly executed; that the officers charged with conducting the elections may be protected in the discharge of their duties, and that the qualified electors may be protected in the exercise of the elective franchise, Commanders of Posts are authorized, whenever in their judgment it may be necessary, to appoint, from the officers of the army or the Freedmen's Bureau, under their command, Military Commissioners for Districts or counties within the territorial limits of their commands that are so remote from their headquarters that the powers conferred upon Post Commanders cannot be immediately or directly exercised.

The Military Commissioners so appointed are invested with all the powers of the Justices of the Peace of Districts or Counties, or the police magistrates of cities, and will be governed in the execution of their duties by the laws of the State in which they may be serving, except so far as these laws may be in conflict with the laws of the United States or with the orders issued from the Headquarters of this District; and, in addition to any troops that may be placed at their disposal, are given the command of the police force of Districts, Counties, cities and towns; and all police officers, sheriffs, constables, and other peace officers, are required to obey and execute the orders of the Military Commissioners in all such cases.

The Military Commissioners will promptly report all cases in which they assume jurisdiction, and the disposition made in each case. When parties are held for trial, either in confinement or under bail, the case will be so fully reported as to enable the Commanding General to decide whether it shall be tried by a military tribunal or be brought before a civil court.

The jurisdiction herein given to the Military Commissioners will be determined and limited by the authority heretofore delegated to Post Commanders by General Orders No. 32, of May 30, 1867, and General Orders No. 145, of December 6, 1867, and will not be considered as extending to the inhabitants in their ordinary personal relations, unless the civil authorities should refuse or fail to suppress insurrection, disorder and violence, and to give all rightful protection to persons and property; and all persons, whether in authority or not, are required to obey and execute all lawful orders of the Military Commissioners to the same extent and in the same manner that they are required by law to obey and execute the writs of the civil magistrates.

Some of the complaints that have reached the Commanding General apply to colored voters of the two States, and to sections where they have the numerical ascendancy. To them it is proper to say that the elective franchise conferred upon them by law, carries with it no authority to restrict others in the free exercise of that right; and that while it is their duty not to regard threats or intimidations as to themselves, any combinations to prevent by force, intimidation or threats the same free exercise of this right by others will be unlawful, and will subject the offenders to the penalties prescribed by law and by military orders.—They are counselled to exercise the right of voting in a quiet and orderly manner, giving offence to no one; and after casting their votes, not to linger about the polling places, but to return quietly to their homes and to their customary avocations.

Commanding Officers will give as wide a circulation as possible to this order within the limits of their commands.

By command of Brevet Major General
ED. R. S. CANBY.

Gen. Canby's Election Order.

HEADQUARTERS SECOND MILITARY DIST.,
Charleston, S. C., March 25, 1868.

GENERAL ORDERS,
No. 45.

The Constitutional Convention of the State of North Carolina, in conformity with the Act of Congress of March 23, 1867, supplementary to the Act of March 2, 1867, "to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," having framed a Constitution and civil government according to the provisions of the aforecited laws; and having by an ordinance adopted on the 17th day of March, 1868, provided that the said Constitution shall be submitted "for ratification to the persons registered under the provisions of this Act (March 23, 1867, section 4) at an election to be conducted by the officers appointed or to be appointed by the Commanding General as hereinbefore provided, and to be held after the expiration of thirty days after the notice thereof to be given by the said Convention," and having further provided, by the aforesaid ordinance, that at the same time an election shall be held for Senators and Representatives in the General Assembly, and for all State and County officers who are to be elected by the people under this Constitution, and further, that in each Congressional District of the State an election shall be held for a member of the House of Representatives of the United States Congress, it is ordered:

First. That an election be held in the State of North Carolina, commencing on Tuesday, the 21st day of April, and ending on Thursday the 23d day of April, 1868, at which all registered voters of said State may vote "For Constitution" or "Against Constitution," and also on the same ballot for the State and County officers and for members of the United States House of Representatives, as specified in the before cited ordinance.

Second. It shall be the duty of the Boards of Registration in North Carolina, commencing fourteen days prior to the election herein ordered, and giving reasonable public notice of the time and place thereof, to revise for a period of five days, the registration lists; and upon being satisfied that any person not entitled thereto has been registered, to strike the name of such person from the lists, and such persons shall not be entitled to vote. The Boards of Registration shall also, during the same period, add to such lists the names of all persons who at that time possess the qualifications required by said Acts, who have not already been registered.

Third. In deciding who are to be stricken from or added to the registration lists, the Boards will be guided by the law of March 2, 1867 and the laws supplementary thereto, and their attention is especially directed to the supplementary Act of July 19, 1867.

Fourth. Any duly registered voter of this State who may have removed from the County in which he was registered, shall be entitled to vote in the County to which he has removed and has resided for the ten days next preceding this election, upon presentation of a certificate of registration from the County in which he was originally registered, or upon his affidavit or other satisfactory evidence that he was so registered, and that he has not voted at this election. It shall be the duty of the Registrars, upon the application of any duly registered voter who has removed or is about to remove from the precinct in which he was originally registered, to furnish him with a certificate that he was so registered, and to note the fact in the registration books of the precinct. In default of the certificate, the affidavit of the voter must set forth the County and precinct in which he was originally registered and the length of time he has resided in the County in which he desires to vote. In doubtful cases, the Registrars or Inspectors of election shall require such additional evidence as may be necessary to satisfy them that the applicant is legally entitled to vote. Blank forms for the certificates and for the affidavits herein required, will be furnished the Registrars and the inspectors of election, and when used will be attached to the ballots cast by such voters, and will be transmitted to District Headquarters with the returns required by law.

Fifth. The said election will be held in each County at such places as may hereafter be designated, under the superintendence of the Boards of Registration as provided by law, and in accordance with notices hereafter to be given to said Boards in conformity with the Acts of Congress and as far as may be with the laws of North Carolina.

Sixth. The polls shall be opened at such voting places at six o'clock in the forenoon, and closed at six o'clock in the afternoon of each day, and shall be kept open during these hours without intermission or adjournment.

Seventh. All Judges and Clerks employed in conducting said election shall, before commencing to hold the same, be sworn to the faithful performance of their duties, and shall also take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by law for officers of the United States.

Eighth. No member of the Board of Registration, who is a candidate for election to any office to be filled at this election, shall serve as a Judge or Inspector of Election in any precinct which he seeks to represent.

Ninth. The Sheriff and other peace officers of each County are required to be present during the whole time that the polls are kept open, and until the election is completed; and will be made responsible that there shall be no interference with Judges of Election, or other interruption of good order. If there should be more than one polling place in any County, the Sheriff of the County is empowered and directed to make such assignments of his deputies, and other peace officers to the other polling places, as may in his judgment best subserve the purposes of quiet and order; and he is further required to report these arrangements in advance to the Commander of the Military Post in which his County is situated.

Tenth. Violence, or threats of violence, or of discharge from employment, or other oppressive means to prevent any person from registering or exercising his right of voting, is positively prohibited; and any such attempts will be reported by the Registrars or Judges of Elections, to the Post Commander, and will cause the arrest and trial of the offenders by military authority. The exhibition or carrying of deadly weapons in violation of General Orders No. 10, of 1867, at or in the vicinity of any polling places during the election herein ordered, will be regarded and treated as an additional offence.

Eleventh. All bar rooms, saloons, and other places for the sale of liquors by retail, will be closed from six o'clock of the evening of the 20th of April, until six o'clock of the morning of the 24th of April, 1868, and during this time the sale of all intoxicating liquors at or near any polling place is prohibited. The police officers of cities and towns, and the Sheriffs and other peace officers of Counties, will be held responsible for the strict enforcement of this prohibition, and will promptly arrest and hold for trial all persons who may transgress it.

Twelfth. Military interference with elections, "unless it shall be necessary to repel the armed enemies of the United States, or to keep the peace at the polls," is prohibited by the Act of Congress approved February 25, 1865, and no soldiers will be allowed to appear at any polling place, unless as citizens of the State they are qualified and are registered as voters, and then only for the purpose of voting; but the Commanders of Posts will keep their troops well in hand on the days of election, and will be prepared to act promptly if the civil authorities are unable to preserve the peace.

Thirteenth. The returns required by law to be made to the Commander of the District of the results of this election, will be rendered by the Boards of Registration of the several Registration precincts through the Commanders of the Military Posts in which their precincts are situated, and in accordance with the detailed instructions hereafter to be given.
